

2010 Masks at MOCA Gala Table Opportunities
May 1, 2010 at Fort Collins Museum of Contemporary Art

Please join us for the annual Masks at MOCA Gala... an evening promised to deliver great food and wine, beautiful masks created by members of the community, and an exciting live auction.

In being responsible stewards of our resources, the gala will be held at the museum.
To increase comfort and ambiance; Patron and Friends tables are available.

Patron Table

You or your company has the opportunity to share this unique evening with friends, colleagues and clients through the purchase of a Patron Table for $1,500 that seats 10 people. You and your guests will be met at the front door by your private hostess who will escort you to your reserved seating in museum. Your group will share a complimentary bottle of champagne at your table. You will enjoy dining catered by Food for Thought. When it is time for the live auction, your hostess will escort you to your table in the auction tent. Patron Table sponsor's names will be listed in the color gala brochure if your response is received by Friday, April 9.

Friends Table

You may also put together a Friends Table that seats 10 people for $1,200. The Friends Table includes reserved seating in the museum and reserved seating in the live auction tent. You will enjoy dining catered by Food for Thought. By reserving a Friends Table, you can be assured that you will be able to sit with and enjoy the evening your friends.

If you are interested in having a Patron Table or a Friends Table please fill in the form and note Patron Table or Friends Table. Please respond before Tuesday, April 20. Thank you.
